

Notice from Changhua County Government

Subject: Regarding the temporary suspension of foreign workers' change of employer during the three-level alert period and the impact of their life, the provision of emergency relief for foreign workers, if you are eligible, please check the application procedures as explained.

Explanations:

1. In order to reduce the flow of people and prevent the spread of the epidemic, starting from June 6, 2021, the Ministry of Labor adopted the principle to suspend foreign workers from changing employers, with exceptions. Due to the disabled and family care needs, the Central Epidemic Command Center for Severe Special Infectious Pneumonia announced that starting from July 1, 2021, priority will be given to the restoration of foreign domestic care workers and domestic helpers to change employers or jobs, and on July 13, 2021, industrial foreign workers were resumed to change employers or jobs.
2. If you have the suspension of changing employers or your life during the work period is affected or is in a difficult situation, and meets Type 1 or Type 2 of the review items in the application form, please submit the following information to the government before November 20, 2021 apply for subsidies. The application procedures, subsidy amount, attached documents and review procedures are as follows:
 - (1) Application procedure: You or your agent submit the application.
 - (2) Subsidy amount: Based on the subsidy base of NT$1,500 per week (affected less than one week, counted as one week), the period of impact of the temporary shift of employers for family foreign workers in this case is from June 6 to June 30 (3 weeks above, less than 4 weeks), the upper limit of subsidy is NT$6,000 (NT$1,500 n x 4 weeks); the period affected by the suspension of employer switching measures for industrial foreign workers is from June 6 to July 12 (more than 5 weeks, less than 6 weeks), the maximum subsidy is NT$9,000 (NT$1,500 x 6 weeks).

(3) Attach documents:

- a. A completed 2021 Emergency Relief Application / Receipt for Foreign Workers Impacted by the Temporary Ban on Employer and Work Transfers and (including 2 receipts, please sign in person; please do not fill in the subsidy amount and date).
- b. One copy of your letter of revocation of employment authorization before June 5, 2021 (inclusive).
- c. One copy of your passport and residence permit.

(4) Review procedure: The government shall handle it in accordance with the provisions item 2 of point 7 .

3. Please download the relevant documents of this case from the website of the Changhua County Government Labor Department (<http://www.chcg.gov.tw/labor/>) / Message Center / Announcement Information.
4. Submit the 2021 Emergency Relief Application / Receipt for Foreign Workers Impacted by the Temporary Ban on Employer and Work Transfers (bilingual) and a bilingual translation of this letter.